Michael Cutting of Holy Soldier fame announces the release of first ever full-length solo recording.

6. Happy Hollowdays

Unspoken, the long anticipated debut solo release from veteran Rock Guitarist, Singer, Songwriter and Producer Michael Cutting was officially launched world wide on January 1st, 2017. This all-original release is jam packed with powerful, memorable tunes, melodic vocals, thought provoking lyrics and mind-blowing/soulful guitar. Unspoken is already receiving rave reviews from fans and critics alike. Written, Produced and Engineered by Michael, this is a release worthy of serious attention. Unspoken was Mixed and Mastered by Platinum Mix Engineer David Zaffiro (Little Big Town, Holy Soldier, Point of Grace), and is a serious contender for 2017 and beyond.

Michael skillfully blends many musical styles from Heavy Rock to Pop, Blues, Gospel and everything in between to create a multi-dimensional record, each song stands boldly on its own. From dark, moody and thought provoking to all out pounding Rock & Roll it will take the listener on an epic musical journey. Lyrics speak of universal themes and real human experiences, issues, struggles and triumphs that everyone can relate to.

Unspoken features backing vocal performances from three renowned Int'l female vocalists; Gospel Singer/Performer Honey Lollis, Classical Indian vocalist Kamini Natarajan and Brazilian born Italian vocalist Georgia Brown (multi Guinness Book of World Records holder for Highest Note and Widest Vocal Range). Unspoken is a Rock record, and sounds like no other.

Michael has a long and rich history in the music world. As former lead guitarist of the multi award-winning rock band Holy Soldier, he played an integral part in the band's success. Through three studio albums and one live release (which he also co-produced) Michael's Songwriting, Performing, Singing and Production skills helped the band garner many awards and accolades including two time award winner for Album Of The Year, and two time award winner for Song Of The Year (Heavy Metal/Rock), as well as six #1 radio singles.

After many successful years as a Songwriter, Producer, Mix and Mastering Engineer for other Artists (including Int'l Brazilian recording artists), Michael feels the time is right for him to release a recording of his own material, to express his inner most thoughts, feelings and personal life experiences the way he wanted to. To tell a story, which has now become known to the world as Unspoken.

Unspoken will soon be featured in several online Magazines and Blogs, HM Magazine .as well as European publications such as Rock It! and SLAM
